

University of Nebraska-Lincoln High Plains Ag Lab Field Peas and Grazing Plot Tour

June 21, 2018

7:45 – 8:25 AM Registration/Coffee & Rolls/Welcome

8:30 AM Load Trailer and Depart for Field Pea Variety Trial

8:40 AM Field Pea Variety Tour – Dipak Santra

9:00 AM Field Pea Fertility – Bijesh Maharjan

9:10 AM Pea Populations and Planting Dates – Cody Creech and Samuel Koeshall

9:20 AM Oat Pea Mixtures and Grazing – Mitch Stephenson and Nathan Pflueger

9:30 AM Depart for Wheat Tour

Wheat Tour

8:45 – 9:25 AM Registration/Coffee & Rolls/Welcome

9:30 AM Load Trailer and Depart for CoAxium Wheat Trial

9:45 AM CoAxium Wheat Production System and Aggressor Herbicide – Cody Creech and Chad Shelton

10:00 AM Dispersal of Wheat Curl Mite and Spread of Viruses into Wheat – Gary Hein and Lindsay Overmeyer

10:15 AM Wheat Stem Sawfly Emergence in 2018 – Jeff Bradshaw and Bethany Bergstrom

10:45 AM Wheat Variety Tour – Stephen Baenziger

Lunch

Sponsor Acknowledgement

On-Farm Research – Karen DeBoer

Directions to Location

The UNL High Plains Ag Lab is six miles northwest of Sidney (see map). From the High Plains Ag Lab at 3257 Road 109, Sidney, go 0.5 miles east on Cr. Road 32N, then north 0.25 mile on Trial Road. The plot is on the north edge of Field 25.